about us

Since 1988 our distinctive brand image has been consistently developed across an expanding number of products, technical developments and consumers who became our indispensable partners.

Reflecting a "Rescue Mens" perspective, we have been an innovator in aspirational life style branding and believe that, under the direction of our AR-MA rules, we have influenced our "consumer partners" life styles with a unified vision. Our unique and timeless style is inspired by a long tradition of careful workmanship to ensure to AR-MA clothing is made to last. AR-MA produces tough, durable and authentic men's clothing that is constructed using the highest industry standarts.

As our man is a honorable knight of this age, who is saving other peoples life without any hesitation, the garments also should be appropriately adopted to his various locations, standarts and conditions. We provide you the quarantee of the reputation that has been earned since 1988.

Save The Ocean

The ocean, which fascinates us with its magnificent beauty, produces half the oxygen we breathe and absorbs a third of the world's gas emissions. In short, we cannot exist without it. However, humanity has used the ocean as an endless garbage field for centuries, upsetting the entire balance of the ocean, especially due to the nets left by the global fishing fleets. In the past few decades alone, marine vertebrate populations have declined by more than 50%. It's time to act! As Arma, we want to draw attention to the ocean with the motto "Save The Ocean" more than ever. Save the ocean because we only have one world.

Summer 23 Collection

Everyone searches for the meaning of life. Only some know that the meaning of life is to give life a meaning. The moments that will give meaning to your life often pass through nature. Sometimes a warm and salty sea, sometimes sailing with your best friend, sometimes a river where you camp, sometimes an early morning walk, sometimes an endless ocean; it can give you the answers you're looking for.

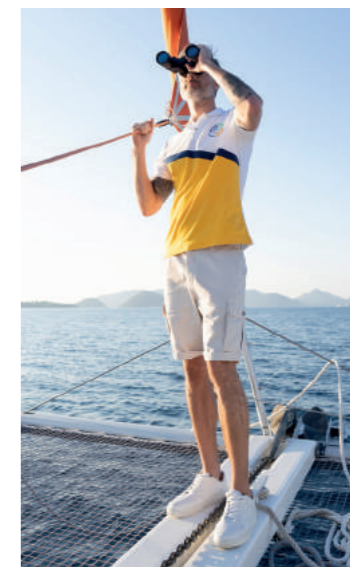

Arma products have been carefully designed to accompany you at just such moments.
For those who never stop searching...

Sailing-Blue Sails

SAILING AWAY

You are independent to take the time for this journey to hidden depths. No matter how crowded your mind is, it depends on you to festinate yourself. 'To stop and breathe between the stillness of the sandy coast and the slow-paced of the ocean blue' and 'letting the sunrise fall on you' are an invaluable experience.
